Disclosure of Relevant Financial Relationships
In accordance with the ACCME guidelines and ANCC requirements, AASLD endeavor to ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor for all accredited products or programs. AASLD requires that all individuals involved in the development, management, presentation or evaluation of CME content make full disclosure indicating current, planned or previous (within the last 12 months) relevant financial relationships which you or your spouse/partner have with a commercial interest or a competing or potentially competing commercial interest (e.g. pharmaceutical companies, biomedical device manufacturers, and/or corporations). All continuing education planners, faculty, authors, editors, or item writers participating in AASLD sponsored programs or products must complete this form and return it as $\int \text{Scroll for More } \end{bmatrix}$

Step E: Tittle & Category

In this step of the submission process you will be asked to provide your abstract tile and general abstract information, such as the following:

- Abstract Title
- Presentation Type: Whether you would like your work to be considered for both Oral or Poster presentation, or Poster Only
- Whether you would like to be considered for additional opportunities at The Liver Meeting® (e.g. ePoster Tours, trainee mentoring, etc.)
- Whether your abstract highlights health disparities
- Presentation Format: Whether you would like your work to be considered for both In-person and virtual delivery, or virtual presentation only
- Submission Type: Basic, Clinical or Translational
- If applicable, the Clinical Trial Number
- Whether your work has a funding source
- Whether you would like to apply for an Abstract Travel Award
- The Category and Subcategory (Description) that best classifies your submission

When selecting your category and subcategory, you will first choose the general topical category. Once selected, an additional list of options will appear for you to choose the subcategory. A category and subcategory are both REQUIRED to submit your work.

Step H: Adding Abstract Authors

In the Author step, you will provide all authors and co-authors of your work. When you first get to this step, you will see the Author Search tool. This search enables you to locate authors already in our system and add them to your abstract. If they are not already in our system, you will also have the option to add a new author.

Searching for a New Author:

Enter their first name, last name or email address in the search field. If your search results in any potential matches, the results will be provided in a drop-down list directly from the search bar.

If there are no matches to your search, the drop-down list will say "No Results." To add a new person, click the ADD NEW PERSON button located below.

Once you have added your authors, you will then have the opportunity to designate your presenting author as well as adjust the order in which the authors are listed.

Explanation of Assigned Roles

Submitter Only

The author who has submitted the abstract to AASLD. By default, they are also the presenting author.

Presenting Author

The author who is presenting the abstract in person at The Liver Meeting 2024. If the submitting author chooses to assign this role to another, they will lose all access to edit the abstract, and that access will be passed along to the presenting author.

Co-Author

An author who contributed to the research in the abstract but is not participating in submitting the abstract to AASLD or presenting the abstract.

Step I: Travel Award

Please note, this step will only appear for those who selected that they would like to apply for a travel award during the previous step. If you selected "No", this step will not appear.

In the Travel Award step, applicants will receive an email titled "Important AASLD Information: AASLD Foundation Abstract Awards TLM 2024" that provides them with a link to AASLD Foundation Travel Award submission portal. Sample email is below:
